SCHOLA CANTORUM CELEBRATES THE GOLDEN AGE OF BROADWAY IN GROUP SING-ALONG

Forget your cares, raise your voices, and remember those golden days of Broadway at Schola Cantorum's sing-along Sunday, November 22 at 3:00 PM at the Los Altos United Methodist Church. No need to read music, the songs are well-known, and the words are projected on a screen so anyone can participate. The piano leads the way, played by Dawn Reyen who also conducts.

This is the tenth Broadway Sing that the 85-member ensemble Schola Cantorum has offered. This year's event focuses on classics from 1943-59, from hit shows including "West Side Story," "Brigadoon," "Guys and Dolls," "Annie Get Your Gun," and "The Music Man."

"These songs have stood the test of time because they're catchy, easy to learn, and easy to sing," says Reyen. "The sing-along is a great way for parents to introduce their kids to Broadway classic songs that have been a part of popular culture since the mid twentieth century."

Reyen will provide a bit of background information and trivia about each tune, making the sing-along experience educational as well as fun.

Says Reyen: "There's no better way to spend a Sunday afternoon than singing with a group of people and remembering some good old songs. This is group karaoke at its finest."

Tickets are $15 general, free to ages 18 and under, and students with ID ages 25 and under. To order, visit www.ScholaCantorum.org, or call 650-254-1700.
