

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Schola's Community Singalong Features Broadway Hits

MOUNTAIN VIEW, CA - (January 6, 2020) - Schola Cantorum invites the public to a community singalong slated for Sunday, January 26 at 3 pm at Los Altos United Methodist Church. Titled "My Favorite Things: The Songwriting Genius of Richard Rodgers," the music-making social event includes hits from such Broadway shows as "The Sound of Music," "South Pacific," and "Oklahoma!"

Among other selections, singers can expect to belt out "My Funny Valentine" and "Mountain Greenery" from the Rodgers and Hart years, along with "My Favorite Things" and "People Will Say We're in Love" from the Rodgers and Hammerstein collaborations.

Schola's Assistant Director, Dawn Reyen, will direct the singalong and accompany on the piano. Lyrics will be projected on a large screen, so no musical training is required. "Everyone is invited to come share in the joy of singing," said Reyen. "Forget the outside world for an afternoon, and enjoy the wonderful songs that Richard Rodgers gave us - maybe even discover a new favorite!"

Admission is $15. For tickets and information, visit scholacantorum.org.

Schola Cantorum Silicon Valley is a large, auditioned chorus under the baton of Buddy James. Its mission is to connect the Silicon Valley community with the wonders of choral music through outstanding live performances, educational outreach programs, and collaborations with local artists.

#

Contact:

Dan Morris, Executive Director
Schola Cantorum Silicon Valley
2218 Old Middlefield Way, Suite G
Mountain View, CA 94043
650-254-1700
dmorris@scholacantorum.com

Related Link:

www.scholacantorum.org

